Prayer Information Prayer is essentially a conversation with God, speaking and listening. We know how to speak to God, but listening is a little more challenging. We listen primarily through the Word of God. Praying over Scripture to listen to God speak uniquely to us is called Lectio Divina. A method for Lectio Divina can be with the 4 R's. Read - prayerfully and slowly go over scripture and perhaps a commentary on scripture as well, you can even repeat the reading several times seeing what stands out to you Reflect - ponder on what stands out to you for a time Relate - relate what stands out to you with God, conversing with Him about that Resolution- make a concrete resolution such as calling to mind a word or phrase that day or carrying out some action that day, this way we are integrating our prayer in to our lives What resources are there for prayer? The Bible especially the Gospels and Psalms, Mass readings for the day, a devotional that helps break open the Word such as Magnificat, Word Among Us, Daily Prayer 2019. A daily email meditation on the Gospel called Regnum Christi, apps such as Laudate, Relevant Radio app which has a podcast called in conversation with God, and EWTN app. Bishop Barron's Lent Reflections.com, Lent emails from dynamiccatholic.com. The Rosary and Mysteries of the Rosary are also a good source for meditation. The Divine Office is a good source of prayer as well and can be found on an app called iBreviary. For more on Lectio Divina go to Formed.org and listen to a talk on prayer called Lectio Divina.

Whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.— 2 Corinthians 5:17
Marriage Minute The Journey of 1000 Miles... Begins with the first step, and sometimes, the first step is the most difficult. Imagine the Prodigal Son; how difficult was it for him to acknowledge his offenses against his dad? The lost son had to admit serious sin, swallow his pride, and risk being rejected. The same scenario exists in the married relationship. How often does a spouse have to risk rejection if he or she admits wrongdoing and asks for forgiveness? Humility is difficult, but it is always worth it. If reconciling with your spouse is difficult, try the following: • Remember the last time you reconciled and the joy of being reunited • Look ahead and imagine how great it will be to be set free from your prison of isolation • Remember how Christ desires reconciliation and ask for His help For practical strategies to reconcile, check out Every Day in Love at www.archkck.org/everyday
WORLDWIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER For a Christian, marriage is not just a social institution, it is a real supernatural calling. A great sacrament, instituted by Christ. It is a permanent contract that sanctifies in cooperation with Jesus Christ. He fills the souls of husband and wife and invites them to follow him. He transforms their whole married life into an occasion for God's presence on earth. How well are you living out your supernatural calling? A Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend can help you explore and answer that question! The next weekend in the Kansas City area will be May 3-5, 2019. For more information, or to apply for a weekend, visit www.wwme4youandme.org, or call/email Tony & Barb Zimmerman at 816-741-4066, tonybarbz@prodigy.net

You finish your date at home or out on the town! www.schooloflovekc.com/date-night DATE NIGHT, FIRST THURSDAYS THURS, APR 4th 6:30-7:30pm CLASSIC CUP, CELLAR, 301 W. 47th St. (Plaza, KC) private entrance from lower level of parking garage off Central St. between 47th and Nichols
